

Irvin B. Foreman
1929 – 2015

University of Pittsburgh

Schepner-McDermott Funeral Home

165 Noble Ave

Crafton, Pennsylvania

Age 86, a longtime Pennsbury Village resident peacefully on Thursday, May 21, 2015, with his beloved partner of 50 years, Frank W. Nesz at his side.

Loving brother of Donald (Patricia Doran) Foreman; dear uncle of James Foreman. Born in Baltimore, MD, he then moved to Pittsburgh and graduated from Langley High School and was a graduate from the University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's, master's and predoctoral. Irv taught current events and history in Catonsville High School in Baltimore.

After six years he moved to Pittsburgh where he was a guidance counselor at Carnegie High School and Gateway High School for over 30 years where he made many lifetime friends.

He moved to Pennsbury Village in 1966 and formerly served on the condo board and performing arts, he was also the editor of the Pennsbury newsletter for over ten years, also Boro Manager for over 20 years.

He will be sadly missed by his many friends and acquaintances of Pennsbury, and especially by Henry Lane, the Brindle and Gunniers families.

Friends are invited to celebrate Irvin's life Saturday, May 30, 2015, from 11 a.m. to 12 noon at which time the blessing service will be held in the Schepner - McDermott Funeral Home, 165 Noble Ave., Crafton.

Immediately following the service friends are invited to attend the Craftonian Hall next to the funeral home for a memorial luncheon.

No flowers please. Memorial contributions may be made in Irv's name to Animal Friends, 562 Camp Horne Rd., Pgh., PA 15237.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb